

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Markus Graefen

- Medical School at the University of Bonn
- Residency in Urology at University Hospitals in Edinburgh, Duesseldorf and Hamburg
- Employed since 1995 at the University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf as a specialist for diagnosis and therapy of prostate cancer
- 2000-2001 Research Fellowship at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New York granted by the German Research Society
- Head of the Prostate Cancer Outpatient Clinic since 2002
- Numerous scientific publications, book contributions and research prizes in prostate cancer research
- Consultant for several national and international urology journals
- Member of the German, European and American Societies of Urology
- Main surgical field: Nerve-preserving radical prostatectomy, afterloading and seed brachytherapy for prostate cancer